Hijinx

Croeso i Ŵyl Undod Hijinx, ein dathliad bob dwy flynedd o gelfyddydau cynhwysol ac anabledd. Eleni mae gennym artistiaid yn teithio i Gymru o bob rhan o'r Deyrnas Unedig, Ewrop, Brasil a Seland Newydd i gyflwyno rhaglen sy'n cynnwys dawns, theatr, syrcas, celfyddydau gweledol ac arddangosfeydd digidol.

Am y tro cyntaf byddwn yn llunio partneriaeth â Gŵyl Bwyd a Diod Caerdydd, felly gallwch fachu rhywbeth blasus i'w fwyta tra byddwch yn mwynhau rhaglen y penwythnos.

Diolch yn anferthol i'n tîm gwych o staff a gwirfoddolwyr yn Hijinx sydd wedi treulio misoedd yn cynllunio'n ofalus ac a fydd yn gweithio'n ddiflino yn ystod yr wythnos i sicrhau bod y digwyddiad yn brofiad gwych i'n cynulleidfaoedd a'n hartistiaid – os gwelwch chi rai ohonom yn ein crysau T pinc neu oren cofiwch ddweud helo. A diolch fel arfer i'n cyllidwyr, noddwyr, cefnogwyr a'n hartistiaid, wrth gwrs – rydym ni i gyd yn edrych ymlaen at eich croesawu i Ŵyl Undod 2024!

Welcome to the Hijinx Unity Festival, our biennial celebration of inclusive and disability arts. This year we have artists travelling to Wales from throughout the UK, Europe, Brazil and New Zealand to present a programme that includes dance, theatre, circus, visual arts and digital exhibitions.

For the first time we will be partnering with the Cardiff Food and Drink Festival, so you can grab something delicious to eat while you enjoy the weekend programme.

Huge thanks go out to our brilliant Hijinx team of staff and volunteers who have spent months meticulously planning and will be working flat out during the week to ensure the event is a brilliant experience for both our audiences and artists – if you see any of us in our pink or orange t-shirts be sure to say hello. And thanks as ever to our funders, sponsors, supporters and of course our artists – we all look forward to welcoming you to Unity Festival 2024!

Dança sem Fronteiras

Trwy gyfuno iaith theatr-dawns â cherddoriaeth a seinwedd, ynghyd â gweithredu Chris Tally Evans dros anabledd, mae'r perfformiad hwn yn gweld cefn gwlad a'r concrid yn gwrthdaro mewn crochan traws-ddiwylliannol o seiniau a'r gweledol.

Cymraeg, Saesneg + Portwgeeg Brasil

Fusing the languages of dance-theatre, music and soundscape with Chris Tally Evans' disability activism, this performance sees countryside and concrete collide in a cross-cultural cauldron of sound and vision.

Beth mae'n ei olygu i gamu ar lwyfan, ac felly i mewn i'r byd? Beth ydw i'n barod i'w ddangos? Mae Undressed yn cynnwys dod at ei gilydd, aildrefnu a gwahanu yn gyson, sy'n cael ei gyfleu trwy ddawns, symudiadau'r corff, anadlu, cerddoriaeth a thawelwch ac yn ymdopi'n llwyr heb iaith lafar.

What does it mean to enter a stage and thus the world? What am I prepared to show? Undressed consists of a constant coming together, reorganising and detaching, told through dance, body, movement, breathing, music and silence and manages entirely without spoken language.

Beth os wyt ti'n brifo Duncan? Beth os wnes di? Dwi'n siŵr y gallet ti. Dwi'n siŵr y gallet ti wneud. Dwi'n siŵr y byddi di.

Golwg drasig-gomedïol ar anhwylder gorfodaeth obsesiynol, yn ddoniol iawn ac yn emosiynol iawn i'r un graddau.

What if you hurt Duncan? What if you did? I bet you could. I bet you could do it. I bet you will.

A tragi-comic insight into obsessive compulsive disorder, in equal measures very funny and profoundly moving.

★★★★ "An hour full of humour, heartfelt fun, and the best portrayal of OCD I've ever seen in a theatre production."

Compagnie DK-BEL

O fan cychwyn syniad y bardd Charles Baudelaire bod Harddwch yn gysylltiedig â'r bisâr, y rhyfedd, anhrefn, â phoen a pha mor fregus yw bodolaeth, mae C'est BEAU! yn archwilio sut y gall harddwch mewn gwirionedd fod yn gyfrwng rhwng emosiwn personol ac ar y cyd a hyd yn oed emosiwn cyffredinol.

From a starting point of poet Charles Baudelaire's notion of Beauty as linked to the bizarre, to strangeness, to chaos, to pain and the fragility of beings, C'est BEAU! explores how beauty can actually be a conduit between personal and collective and even universal emotion.
