Name free recruitment

To help reduce unconscious bias, everything you send to us is anonymised and we review cover letters before looking at CVs. So please make sure your cover letter includes everything you want us to know about why you're right for the role. If you choose to submit a recording, the shortlisting panel will hear your voice (and, if you submit a video, know what you look like) but will not have access to your CV, your name or your previous experience. Regardless of the way you send us the information, it's important you let us know why you're interested in the role and how your experience matches the person specification.

Interview questions

To ensure our interview process is fully accessible, we provide all candidates with the interview format and questions in advance.

Diversity monitoring

We are keen to understand more about who applies to work with us. At the end of the application process, we invite you to complete our anonymous diversity monitoring form, which will not be shared with anyone involved in the recruitment process.

HOW TO APPLY

If you think you are a good fit for the role and would like to apply, please send us:

- A current CV telling us about you – and why you feel you are the right person for the role, ensuring you highlight any relevant experience, skills and qualifications. Please send this as a Word document.
- A covering letter of no more than two sides – telling us why you are the right candidate and how you would approach the responsibilities of the role. Please send your covering letter as a Word document.
- A completed Diversity Monitoring Form – to be completed online here – please confirm in your covering letter that you have completed this form.

We know applying for jobs can sometimes feel overwhelming – especially if standard processes don't always work for you.

If writing isn't your preferred way of communicating, you can send us a video or audio file (up to 5 minutes) instead of a written cover letter.

Applications should be sent to jobs@hijinx.org.uk by the closing date.
